ntainebleau in 1973. A master of arms like his father, who was raised in Fontainebleau, Louis Prost inherited the private collection, unique in France. He kept his passion alive, carefully preserving and completing his extraordi nary collection of more than two thousand pieces, most of which date back to the First and Second Empires an d the Restoration. All his life he was a "man of weapons" and this exhibition pays tribute to him. Beyond the military function, this exhibition will have you discover the artistic spirit behind it.
